

Consultant position

Announcement number:	ICSV A-2008/064
Post title and level:	National Consultant in Software Applications Development (Short-term)
Length of contract:	5 w/m over the period 23 June - 15 December 2008
Starting date:	Jun 23, 2008
Organizational unit:	ICM Information and communication management
Duty station:	Trieste - Italy
Deadline for applications:	3 June 2008 12:00:00 AM

Organizational reference:

ICM

Post main functions:

- Provide daily website development and administration support; perform corrective and adaptive maintenance and systems' improvements as requested;
- Support in expansion, tuning and upgrading of all existing databases and selected applications related to ICS web services;
- Provide development modifications and troubleshooting to the Intranet ReMS inventory and procurement management modules, and fulfil ad-hoc development requests from the various areas.

Minimum qualifications and experience:

Office skills / education: University degree in Computer Sciences or equivalent.

Experience: 5 years experience in Information Systems application analysis and development, database design, and Internet resources management. Knowledge of Microsoft IIS and SQL server management, Microsoft .Net framework platform, Visual Studio 2.0, Source Safe, Visual Basic C, C#, Microsoft Office advanced development tools (Visual Basic for Applications), object oriented programming languages, web-applications development technologies (ASPX, Java Script, J2EE), and HTML and web design tools, protocols, GUI, graphics/image design; Good knowledge of all phases of software projects development cycle.

Languages: Working knowledge of English essential. Knowledge of other language(s) an asset.

When applying, please quote the vacancy announcement number, complete the UNIDO Personal History Form in English and attach a recent photo. Send your application to managing.director@ics.trieste.it. If the form is not available, send a detailed curriculum vitae, including information on date of birth, nationality, employment history and references. Please note that it is in your interest to supply a complete and updated set of personal data.

ICS-UNIDO retains the discretion not to make any appointment to this vacancy, to make an appointment at a lower grade in particular if the selected candidate has less than the qualifications required or to make an appointment with a modified job description or for a shorter duration than indicated above. ICS-UNIDO reserves the right to undertake correspondence only with shortlisted candidates.

www.ics.trieste.it/Vacancies.aspx