Rail French company SNFC strike - 13th June

Dear Customer,

We would like to inform you that has called a strike for workers of rail French company SNCF from 20 p.m. of Wednesday 12th June to 8 a.m. of Friday 14th June.

Also long-journey trains will be impacted by the strike, and for 13th June has been cancelled following trains:

- TGV n. 9241 Paris-Milan of 14:51,
- TGV n. 9245 Paris-Milan of 17:51,
- TGV n. 9240 Milan-Paris of 6:00 a.m.,
- TGV n. 9248 Milan-Paris of 23:19.

At moment, seems to be regular: TGV n. 9249 Paris-Milan of 21:45 and TGV n. 9244 Milan-Paris of 16:11 (stop suppressed: Bourg-en-Bresse and Aix-Les-Bain).

It is advisable to check the status of our train (from 24 hours before the departure) on the SNCF website, at link <http://www.infolignes.com>.

We would also remind you that in France a strike of air traffic controllers strike has called: independent trade unions called for a three-days strike for 11th, 12th and 13th June and major unions called for a 24-hours strike for 12th June; Civil Aviation Authority invited air companies to reduce in advance the activity of 50% for those days, delays and cancellations are likely.

In Italy, service at moment seems to be regular, since Enav workers didn't participate to the strike; nevertheless, delays and cancellations are likely as a result of the altered activity in other European countries; also in Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Greece, Portugal, Czech Republic, United Kingdom, Slovakia, Hungary air traffic controllers could participate to the strike.

For any further information, we invite you to check on websites of airlines companies or airports (for France: Charles de Gaulle and Orly www.adp.fr; Bordeaux www.bordeaux.aeroport.fr/en; Lyon www.lyon.aeroport.fr; Marseille www.marseille-airport.com; Nice <http://en.nice.aeroport.fr/>; Toulouse www.toulouse.aeroport.fr/en), or to contact your CWT office.
